

A once-in-a lifetime opportunity to capture special images of your wedding.

- Our cutting-edge technology ensures an idyllic capture of your special occasion. We'll preserve spontaneous moments and the essence of your special event. You'll be able to enjoy your treasured images with friends and family for years to come.
- Special considerations critical to the bride...the groom...the families...everyone.
- Together, we'll make this entire event-from engagement photos to your rehearsal dinner, the day of the wedding, the wedding and your reception-everything you desire.
- Look at our examples. We provide candid, natural photojournalism at its very best.

•All your images are copyright released and presented online for easy sharing with your friends and relatives around the world after full payment. From our online database your photos can be sent to print in a variety of sizes and shipped directly to your home with little effort.

•You own the proofs. Full-quality images will be provided to you on a DVD.

We can also provide complete video production services. High-definition videography and editing can be complemented with field production, direction, script writing, animation and other associated creative services. The RFP music video is a fun and cost-effective way to capture a variety of images. Simply put, RFP can take any number of images, logos, artwork, edit, and add music to create a wonderful cutting-edge presentation.
